The Latest From Frankfort.

In the Democratic Senate yesterday Senator Bell introduced a bill to make it a felony for any State officer to forcibly hold possession of office for a longer period than five days after the Legislature or State Contest Board shall have declared another person legally elected.

The argument in the contested election cases was completed Saturday at Louisville, Hon. Zach Phelps speaking for the Democrats and Gov. Bradley for the Republicans. Judge Field will announce his decision this week.

The Roberts local option bill was defeated yesterday.

A car load of small arms and other equipments were shipped to London yesterday morning. The galling guns and other arms in use by the soldiers on State House Square are still in Frankfort.

Governor Taylor left here for Butler county yesterday morning to attend the funeral of his brother, Alonzo Taylor.

Election Wager Echo.

THE Woodford county grand jury has indicted sixteen gentlemen who had won money on the election of W. S. Taylor as Governor. It seems that the stakeholders had paid over the money to these gentlemen when Mr. Taylor was installed in office as Governor, but that since Mr. Goebel was declared Governor, the men who lost have clamored for their money, which the gentlemen indicted declined to return. Several of the amounts involved are quite large, one man winning as much as $900. The aggregate amount is several thousand. It is stated that one of the Circuit Courts in the Bluegrass region, probably that of Clark, has already decided that stakeholders are liable if they pay over money held by them for others unless with the full consent of both parties to the wager.

Stamps In Books.

The new stamp books will be on sale May 1. Postmaster Bosley has received word to this effect. These books will be in three sizes, one containing twelve two-cent stamps, to sell for twenty-five cents; one having twenty-four two-cent stamps to sell at fifty cents; and one having 48 two-cent stamps to sell for $1. A page will contain six stamps. The books are of convenient pocket size and the stamps are prevented from sticking together by paraffine paper. The books sell at one cent additional on the cost of the stamps for each twelve stamps. This is to pay for the cost of the books.

IT WILL

Interest You.

You often hear of buying goods at

YOUR OWN PRICE,

but you seldom see the opportunity. Now, I am really going to give you a chance to buy a set of furniture at YOUR OWN PRICE. On Monday, February 12th, I placed on exhibit in my show window a handsome Oak Set of Furniture, the real value of which is $65. Now, this is what any dealer would ask you for this Set of Furniture, and it is a good value. On Tuesday the price of this suite will be $64, Wednesday $63 and $1 less for each day it remains in the window, and it will remain there until the price goes to one dollar, unless some one buys before then. You can buy any time the price suits you, provided the other fellow don't beat you to it. Of course, you may want too good a thing and wait too long, but, of course, that will be your fault. Remember every dollar under $65 is a dollar made.

Undertaking in all its branches. Embalming scientifically attended to. Carriages for hire. Furniture repaired. Household goods moved. WOOD MANTELS and TILINGS always on hand.

I can furnish you at any time an experienced man for mantle work.
